ALL SORTS.

1,866 names on the Storey register.
Chris. Dangberg's family are all out of danger.

Douglas county will go for Silver without a doubt.

The Indian Summer seems to have taken a firm hold.

The Grismer-Davies Company with the New South will be here shortly.
Furi Rafetto advertises that he is no longer responsible for debts contracted by his wife.

It is reported that Billy Price's ice house was blown down by the fierce gale that prevailed on Saturday afternoon.

The V. & T. R. R. has decided to make the fight for John D. Kersey and let the balance of the county ticket rip.

If the Republican party is in favor of free silver, isn't it strange that more free coinage Republicans are not elected to Congress?

The Ormsby County Agricultural Association cleared $400 on the week's racing. The bar and pool sellers also came out ahead.

The Populists of Washoe county are getting into the ranks of the silver men and the Republicans are very much dissatisfied at their action.

The registry books for Carson precinct closed on Saturday with 853 names on the list, a falling off of only 21 from two years ago. The Empire books show 113 names.

Three teams loaded with 18-inch pipe left Carson Saturday for Bodie, consigned to the Bodie Electric works. They are to be used in carrying water to their plant.

Of what use would four Republicans be representing Ormsby county in the Legislature? The representatives for Ormsby county must be men who are in line with the majority.

The Enterprise is still unable to find Judge Rising's residence. It is evidently not in Storey county. Perhaps the Tribune can tell us something about it. Town and county. Street and number please.

Don't throw your vote away this Fall by voting for the Democrat-Populist-Republican combination in this State. Give the silver boys a vote from the top of the ticket to the bottom.

The silver fight is on and Nevada should not lag behind her sister States. Vote the Silver ticket and show the friends of the white metal everywhere that Nevada is loyal to the cause.

McKinley continues to employ brilliant flashes of silence on silver and the income tax. Reed has something to say about silver and may use McKinley in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

Senator John P. Jones will arrive from Washington on the 24th—next Wednesday. Look out for some music accompanied by the rattling of bones when the old man heaves in sight!

Ed Parkinson evidently does not believe in advertising. If he would insert a small ad in the Weekly he could sell his house in no time and pack up his duds and go to Washington State.—Weekly.

Joe Miller, of Austin, Silver nominee for State Senator of Lander was in town Sunday. From his manner of painting the city of Carson red, he seemed to be under the impression that he was running here.

The Lyon county Times calls the Gazette the ground hog of Nevada journalism.

Ground hog is what they make sausage of. The Gazette is evidently the outside casing of the commodity mentioned.

The Gazette considers the editor of the APPEAL a bad pillar of the Silver party. Allen Bragg in not exactly a pillar of any party, merely one of the bad pills of any party who wishes to employ his mercenary columns at so much a line.

The novelist who wrote glowingly of what was hidden from eyes when referred to the nose, was the man who wore loud-colored stockings to keep his feet from going to sleep. He might have found genuine bargains in hosiery at Abe Cohn's.

The People's party of Nevada is using the Reno Gazette as an organ. Is it necessary for further proof to convince the voters of the State that the People's party movement was entirely in the interest of the Republican party? We think not.

A CAUSTIC REPLY.

Two Letters Which are of Interest and Will Explain Themselves.

CARSON CITY, Oct. 15th, 1894.

MY DEAR SIR: Inclosing my card I respectfully call your attention to my candidacy and hope you may find it possible to give me your support at the coming election. I am a young man, was raised and educated in Eureka county and therefore I am a loyal Nevadan. I have always striven to merit the support of all true Nevada men, and I hope I may obtain yours. I assure you I will deeply appreciate any aid you may give me. I write this, believing that what is worth having, is worth asking for.

Yours truly,

E. D. VANDERLIEHT.

WINNEMCCA, Nev., Oct., 20, '94.

E. D. Vanderlieth, Republican Nominee Secretary of State—DEAR SIR: I am in receipt of your favor of the 15th inst., soliciting my support in behalf of your candidacy. In reply permit me to state that twenty four years of study and observation of the trend of the two old parties, have convinced me that no aspirant for office, who wears either a Republican or Democratic collar, can rightfully and logically claim to be a "loyal Nevadan;" and, further, that no man, be he high or low, rich or poor, has any moral right to ask for the suffrages of an outraged citizenship, in the name of the Republican party, whose vicious and unpardonable legislation has blighted our battle born state and impoverished the homes of its citizens. Nevada lies prostrate and bleeding at the feet of the nation in consequence of the hostile legislation persisted in by the leaders of your party. Bankruptcy, suffering and disaster play high carnival within her borders, because protection for her silver industry has been denied her in order that bondholders and Wall street brokers might fatten upon her calamities. At this critical stage of our state's peril, with all this ruin and wretchedness confronting us, brought about by machine politicians who have throttled up both the old parties and made them subservient to corporate greed and to the cupidity of the gold trusts, it is truly amazing to me that any one in this state outside of the penitentiary or an insane asylum possessing a spark of patriotism, could have the effrontery to ask a voter to give aid and comfort to the enemies of the state by casting his ballot in favor of any one who politically identifies himself with them. Believing that the time has come when it is the imperative duty of every citizen of this sovereign state to stand shoulder to shoulder with the silver party and make an honest fight for honest money, you will have to excuse me for declining to allow myself to become an exception to the rule I would prescribe for others.

Yours very truly,

CHAS. CHENOWETH.

The total unreliability of the APPEAL was shown on Saturday. It stated that E. M. Beatty, at the meeting in the evening, would read correspondence showing that the Republican party managers of Nevada were behind the candidacy of J. C. Doughty for Congress. Beatty did not even refer to the matter.—Tribune.
Mr. Beatty cut his speech short because of the lateness of the hour and other candidates desiring to speak. He has the correspondence, and read it in Silver City.
The only backsliders to the Silver party this year were Jim Yerington and the Walker Lake Bulletin. Al McCarthy was sent to the Legislature last session by the Silver men, and Jim Yerington was a Silver leader. This year the Bulletin is supporting the Republican ticket in the interest of the V. & T. and Jim is running for State Senator. The voters know how to deal with such men as these on election day.
Some of our Republican friends have registered by proxy. Several names are on the list of men who did not reach this city until Friday morning and some who have been away for months and are still away are on the list. Their wives kindly registered for them and if they don't show up on election day their wives will probably do the voting.
Several of our merchants have been ordering business cards from a San Francisco firm. We have the same goods at the same price.—Weekly. Publish the names so that the people can get a good look at them.

GARDNERVILLE FOR SILVER.

A Big Reception to the Party Nominees.

On Sunday word reached this city that the citizens of Gardnerville wanted to hear some Silver talkers. A lot of candidates headed by Frank Newlands started with rockaways. They found the town blazing with bonfires and enthusiasm when they arrived and the hall was jammed with good red hot advocates of the Silver party. Mr. Newlands delivered the principle address, followed by the State candidates. The speeches met with an enthusiastic reception and the few doubting ones in Gardnerville acknowledged that they had been convinced and will be in line for the whole ticket in November.
Most of the campaigners returned to this city last evening.

The Silver Struggle.

The APPEAL is in receipt of a neat printed volume of 216 pages, entitled "The Silver Struggle, 1890 to 1894," by Francis G. Newlands. It consists of letters and speeches by Mr. Newlands, written and delivered in the four years from 1890 to 1894, inclusive. It is a logical presentation of the cause of silver. The arguments are unanswerable. Some of them were made in the campaign of 1892, more of them were delivered in the House of Representatives and one, "Nevada's Appeal," was adopted at a mass meeting held at Reno, in July 1893.

The letters and speeches contain much valuable information, and those who read them cannot doubt Mr. Newlands' position on what even the Republicans admit in their State platform is the "paramount issue of the day," or say that he does not understand the question.

Candidates' Ball.

The young men of Empire propose to give a grand blowout at Wiggins' hall, Friday evening, October 26, in honor of the coming election. All candidates attending will secure all the ladies' vote. Admission to hall $1 00.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I, Furi Rafetto will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife.

FURI RAFETTO.

Carson Nev., Oct. 22nd, 1894.

"Arthur McEwen's Letter" has been revived and is more peppery than ever. It is actually incandescent. Political jay-hawkers, thin concienced Judges and social wolves of all breeds, are catching it again hot and heavy. Mac mercilessly grills them in a manner peculiarly his own. He could not make it hotter for them unless he pitched them into school. The "Letter" is live, quick reading, so to speak, interesting to every person who likes something which is neither fistulous nor funereal—by which we mean that it is neither hollow nor gloomy, but plumb full of life and fire. The publication office is at 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco; $4 per year.

Congressman Newlands is an able debater, and his record in behalf of Nevada during the two years past is beyond doubt an excellent one. With such men to represent this State, and with others like him who will be elected this fall in other States, its interests and those of its citizens will be in trustworthy hands. Let no man throw his vote away in Nevada on November 6th by adhering to old party lines, but on the contrary, vote for Newlands for Congress, who represents the party of protest.

A vote for the Silver State ticket is a vote against Republican ring rule in Nevada.
